Pair of Corvettes for Charity

Contributed by Curtis Domsch

General Motors has raised $2.325 million for charity with a little help from former President George W. Bush and auction house Barrett-Jackson.

The former president dropped the hammer on the first retail 2018 Chevrolet Corvette Carbon 65 Edition for $1.4 million. The car was being sold to raise funds for the Bush Center's Military Service Initiative, which helps rehabilitate post-9/11 veterans and their families. President Bush also signed the car for the buyer.

GM also sold the first retail 2019 Chevrolet Corvette ZR1. It went for $925,000, with the final bid coming from Rick Hendrick, chairman of Hendrick Automotive Group and owner of NASCAR team Hendrick Motorsports. The sale of the ZR1 benefited the Stephen Siller Tunnel to Towers Foundation, which works to support wounded veterans and builds mortgage-free smart homes through its Building for America's Bravest program.
